Hello "autoresponder code here",

Welcome to the first Internet Marketing Quick Tip.

Each day for the next few days you will receive an email from me that includes a quick tip that will help you learn exactly how you can successfully Internet Marketing Quick Tip.

First tip:

One of the best ways to start marketing and making money online is by becoming an affiliate.

This means that you can get started earning income without having your own product, because you will be selling other peoples products for a share of the profits. If you plan on selling digital products such as ebooks or other downloadable things you can get a very good commission of up to 75%, although around 50% is more common. The commissions are usually lower for physical goods.

There are many good places to find products that you can promote and earn a commission. Such as Clickbank for digital products and Commission Junction for everyday products. These aren't the only places but they are a great place to get started.

When you have signed up for an affiliate program don't forget to always use you affiliate link when selling products otherwise the vendor will not know who to pay and this could cost you a great deal of money.

Make sure you look for your next tip soon.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for your next tip. I hope you found the last one helpful.

Today let's talk about email marketing.

Email marketing is no different than any other type of marketing, the same type rules apply. Your goal should not be to make the sale, but to get the prospect to request additional information.

Did you know that over 90% of emails sent will never be read.

If you want to ensure that your emails are going to get opened you should make sure your subject line announces your email. It should do one thing only - get your reader to open the message and read the first sentence.

Personalizing the subject line with your prospects name is also a good idea and try not to use too much hype. Once you get them to open the email be sure to provide them with something of value and they will take you up on your offer.

If you become a resource to your readers then you will see the quality and quantity of responses change for the better.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for your next quick tip.

There are many ways to promote affiliate products.

One is by advertising with Google Adwords. You just start an account with them and calculate how much money you can afford to spend and they will show your ad to on their network as many times as you budget will allow.

With Google Adwords as with other paid advertising programs you do need to read up on the rules before you begin posting you ads. There are certain thing that you can do that help you target your audience properly and prevent you from wasting your money on unwanted clicks on your links.

There are many books on this subject. Just do a quick search for "Google Adwords" and you will find tons of information on improving your results.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for your next tip.

I hope you are learning a lot from our little tips.

Today let's talk about having your own product.

If you are good at writing or programming then one of the best ways to make money is by making your own product. At first it is probably best to try a subject that you know something about and try to find a problem that you could offer a solution to.

That way you know your audience and that they have a problem that you have solved. Once you have your own product then you can start your own affiliate program to sell your product for you.

If you have a little bit of money and a great idea for a product then you can hire someone to create the product for you from a place like Elance.com or Rentacoder.com. This will help you start earning profits from you new product even faster with less work on your part.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for your next tip. I hope you found the last one helpful.

Whether you sell your own product or are selling as an affiliate it's a good idea to start a website or at the very least a blog or weblog.

This gives you a presence on the Internet and a base to sell from. If you promote or sell good products then it is likely that people will come back and buy from you again.

It also gives your customers and prospects a chance to get to know you. Did you know that people are more likely to purchase from someone that they know and trust rather than someone that they don't know anything about?

That's it for today's tip.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for another quick tip.

Today we are going to jump right into increasing your earnings by starting mailing list.

When you start collecting email addresses from visitors that come to your website you will see a definite increase in your marketing efforts.

To do this you can offer them a free gift, report or subscription to your newsletter. With a newsletter you will have an excellent opportunity to build up a loyal readership. Then you can send a message to them every so often and remind them that you are still around.

People are smart. Make sure you provide them with good information that is related to your product so that they will keep on reading. Be sure not to bombard them with just sales messages. Remember you want them to trust you!

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for your next tip. I hope you found the last one helpful.

Get a good autoresponder like Aweber or Get Response.

These are automatic mailing systems that will capture contact information from people who subscribe to your mailing list.
They will also deliver automated messages for you.
This makes following up with your readers much easier.

All you have to is add the contact form or email address provided by your autoresponder service to your website site.
This way people can sign up to receive messages from you.

It is best to use what is called double opt-in when you are collecting email addresses. This means that people who join your list have to confirm their request to join before you can send them any email. This is the safest way to practice email marketing.

That's it for today's tip!

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for another great tip.

Let's jump right in!

Unless you have a straight sales site that you are getting traffic to with paid advertising, you will need to create some content to help get traffic to your website.

The search engines love fresh relevant content. By adding articles and information focused on good keywords that are specific to the theme of your website you will get better listing results. The better the keywords less competition you will have.

If you can't or do not want to write the content yourself you can hire a ghost writer to do it for you. Or you can purchase ready made private label content that will allow you to sign your name to it as the author. Just make sure you are getting what you pay for. You can expected to pay more for original content that is written for you and less for ready made content.

I hope that helps,

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for your next tip. Did you find the last one helpful?

Today I want to share with you another way that you can make money with your website.

Let's say the you do not want to sell products or that you to generate more income from your website. You can do this with the Google AdSense program.

You must first sign up for an account. Then you will be taken step by step through a process that will give you a piece of code that you can put on your website and then Google will show targeted ads on your pages and you will get paid when someone clicks on them.

The ads will be based on the content on your page. So make sure that you provide good keyword rich articles on the pages where you will be putting the AdSense code.

Don't worry if you aren't familiar with editing code there are very clear instructions on the Google AdSense website.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

Have you submitted your website to the search engines yet?

If you want to get free traffic from the search engines you will want to submit your website to the main search engines. Like Google, Yahoo and MSN. There are others, but you can start with these. Just follow the submission instructions.

It is also a good idea get other sites to link to yours. Having links from other sites means that the search engines think that your site is a bit more important and you can also get traffic straight from the links on these sites.

There are many books available on the subject of getting free traffic by using search engine optimization. There are also many companies that will submit your site for you and help you get better results. Just make sure you choose carefully before you invest your money.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for another great Internet marketing tip.

Today let's talk about writing and submitting articles.

You can write articles on the topic of your website, whether it is to promote a product to increase your AdSense revenue.

Once you have completed the articles you can also submit them to article directories. This will give you even more traffic to your website. Once submitted the directory will then let other ezine and websites owners use it and it will include a link back to your website.

This is good for you in many ways. It will help you get traffic and links. It will also help you become an expert on your chosen topic in the eyes of the people who read your articles.

Remember, if you have any questions I will be glad to help.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for a tip. I hope you found the last tip I sent very helpful.

Today's tip is about creating multiple streams of income.

Once you are successful with one product or site and are making good money from it, then it is important to grow your business by adding in multiple streams of income. You can do this easily by creating another product or site in the same niche as the one that you are already selling in.

This way you will be able to cross promote and increase the visibility of your products. It is important to continue to add new products or services to your income stream because this way if one loses popularity or sales slow down you will have more than one income to rely on.

I hope your Internet Marketing Quick Tip is progressing nicely.

Hello "autoresponder code here",

It's time for another quick tip.

Let's talk about viral marketing.

Viral marketing is all about giving away your own free product or service along with your ad copy. When someone gets your free product they are also allowed to pass it along as a freebie. This is a quick way to multiple your marketing efforts.

You can do this with ebooks, software, articles, audio's and videos as long as you can attach your marketing message to it you can use it.

By using viral marketing strategies, you can reach out all over the Internet with much less effort.

I hope you found that tip helpful and don't forget if you have any questions let me know.

Have a great day,
